

I want to export my footage automatically from Cinegy Desktop to use it in AVID. How can I do this?

You can use the Cinegy Convert job folder to export the material into the AAF file in automatic mode.

Media for all the clips that go into that job folder, are converted into MXF files and the references on the received MXFs are written into a newly created AAF file.