

At the moment, it is not possible to export JPG files to Avid separately (only as a part of video sequence). To export JPGs you need to drag-and-drop JPGs from the DocumentBin to the timeline, and then export the sequence to Avid using a Cinegy Convert job drop folder or Cinegy Browser (“Render graphics” option should be set to “true”).